

To Whom It May Concern,

I strongly support net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISPs and oppose the termination of net neutrality. We should not be forced to pay for access to information (any more than we already do).

So many people that depend on the internet to survive will be locked out of access to information they need to navigate the unjust systems we live within.

Sincerely,

Rachel Unger

